

Enrolment and Selection

1. The student is responsible for notifying College of Nursing Education & Training Australia if they have a medical condition or disability or require assistance in their training.
2. A deposit must accompany enrolment to secure a placement within a course; this fee is also the Administration Fee.
3. It is the student's responsibility to note the date, time and location of the course as advertised.
4. Courses with low enrolments may be cancelled, every effort will be made to contact students, please ensure your contact details are correct.
5. Requests from the student to transfer or credit their course placement due to changed personal circumstances will be considered and every effort will be made to ensure a placement into an alternative course.
6. If you are unable to complete your course, due to changed personal circumstances, the RTO will make every effort to ensure you are placed into an alternative pre-scheduled course.
7. Students can only join after course commencement date if they meet all prerequisites. Full course fees are still payable for late enrolments.
8. The RTO reserves the right to decline admission to a course, terminate a student's enrolment in a class or change a Trainer/Assessor at any time without notice.
9. Students participate in courses involving physical activity; field trips, practical demonstrations etc. and do so at their own risk. The RTO's students are covered by public liability insurance whilst working within the RTO's premises.
10. If a student is identified as having a Disability and requiring further support, refer to the Support Services section in this manual.

1.1 Support Services Process

1.2 Information Session

An information session is offered to students to provide them with further information about the course to assist them with making an informed decision about enrolling into a course. The Information Session is only applicable for Full qualifications.
